1. Employment and working arrangements

This handbook applies to UK employees of Northstar Solutions Ltd., a fictional software company. Full-time employees work 37.5 hours each week. Core collaboration hours are 10:00–16:00, Monday to Friday. Hybrid employees normally attend an office at least two days each week.

2. Probation and leave

The standard probation period is six months and may be extended once for up to three months. Annual leave accrues from the first day, but an employee normally takes no more than ten working days during probation.

Full-time employees receive 25 days of paid annual leave plus UK public holidays. The leave year is 1 January–31 December. Up to five unused days may be carried forward with manager approval and must be used by 31 March.

3. Absence, conduct and departure

1. Report sickness to the manager by 09:30 on the first day. A fit note is required from the eighth calendar day.
2. Report fraud, bribery, harassment or serious safety concerns to speakup@northstar.example.
3. Complete security and data-protection training within ten working days of joining and every twelve months afterwards.
4. Return company equipment within five working days after employment ends.
